

How to Get Started

You can be chatting with a BetterHelp counselor in five easy steps:

1 Visit the BetterHelp Website

You must access BetterHelp through www.betterhelp.com/onegoal. At no time should you provide credit card information or enter a credit card number to access these services.

2 Fill out the Questionnaire

Once you have confirmed your eligibility by entering your OneGoal email on BetterHelp's webpage, you will fill out a questionnaire about yourself. This will help build your BetterHelp profile and give your future counselor/coach the information that's needed to get started. Also, you can change your counselor at any time or any reason! So, if you are unhappy with the counselor, log back in and get rematched with a new one!

3 Create your private account

Now it is time to create your own private account. OneGoal will not know your account/username and will not know which Fellows choose to use this service. This is a completely confidential service between you and your BetterHelp counselor/coach. When you create an account you will be agreeing to BetterHelp's Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy.

4 Pick your Counselor Preferences & Give Background

The next two pages are where you'll enter your counseling preferences and then add a bit of background on why you are trying BetterHelp. This will help BetterHelp pick the right counselor for you, so be thoughtful in how you fill out these sections.

5 Get Matched

Now it's time to get matched! This will take less than 48 hours. Once matched, you can review the counselor BetterHelp has chosen and decide if you like the match. If not, you are able to decline and keep searching. If you like the match, you will accept. From there you can begin your dialog with your counselor!
