

New York Student Summit

OneGoal is proud to announce the launch of our first-ever New York Student Summit on Tuesday, May 21, 2024. Our vision is to empower 250+ high school students and equip them with the tools, insights, and resources they need for meaningful postsecondary planning. This event will be a transformative experience where students will delve into diverse career pathways, gain insights from industry professionals, and network extensively with a variety of community partners.

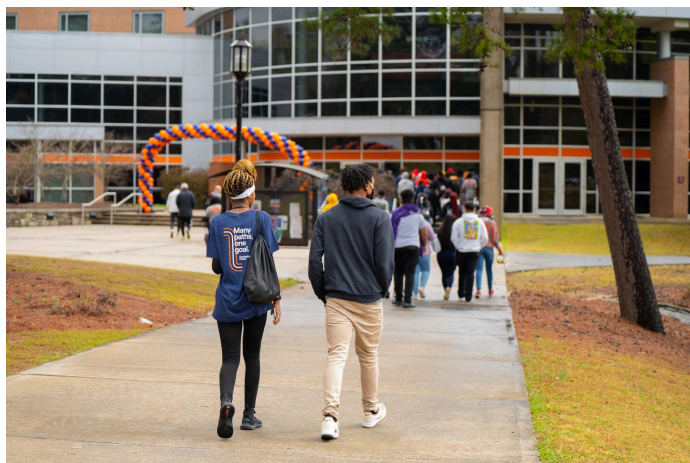

As we seek community partners for this endeavor, we're offering a unique opportunity to align with our mission. Partners of the summit will be making an investment in our students' futures, while gaining brand visibility that highlights their commitment to creating educational opportunities for New York City youth. Your partnership can play a pivotal role in shaping the next generation's educational aspirations and career trajectories.

Opportunity Fair + Workshop Presenter

Reserve your spot and introduce high school students to real-world opportunities beyond their classrooms. Engage directly with these young minds by offering curated workshops, informational sessions, or by securing a booth at the Opportunity Fair, showcasing various industries and academic fields. With a limited number of spots available due to health and safety considerations, this is a prime opportunity to shape the perspectives of tomorrow's professionals. Act now and make a lasting impact.

In-Kind Donations

It takes the support of community partners like you to achieve our bold mission to build the next generation of graduates. During the Student Summit, we have giveaways and awards to fuel Fellows' enthusiasm and ensure students are on track to enroll in a college or a postsecondary program. Consider contributing branded materials like gift cards, coupons, or college dorm supplies to go in student swag bags or raffle items. Your gift makes a big difference in the success of this event and helps us inspire students to reach their greatest postsecondary aspirations.

Student Summit Demographics

OneGoal is unwavering in its commitment to first-generation, low-income students. Currently, we support over 1,400 Fellows in New York. A significant 97% of our students identify as a person of color, 93% come from low-income households, and we focus on students in the academic middle with an average GPA of 2.8. OneGoal champions equal postsecondary opportunities for all students, This focus underscores our conviction that every student, regardless of their initial standing, should have access to resources and chances that propel them towards their postsecondary goals.
